Housing Talks Are Forerunner Coming Parley

By K. C. CARNEGIE

OTTAWA, July 9.—(CP)—The meeting Monday night of nine Canadian mayors with Finance Minister Mackenzie King, and changes expected in the new budget, has been the subject of much speculation.

The mayors are expected to tell Mr. King of their headaches about lack of housing in their cities and are expected to discuss emergency measures as well as proposals to provide permanent homes.

In the depression days when a municipality appealed to the Dominion government for assistance it was said it must go to its provincial government, that the only way the Dominion government could deal with a municipality was through its provincial government.

Niagara Whirlpool Ontario Adventurer Careers Through Rapids in Barrel

By FRASER MACDOUGALL

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 9.—(CP)—While more than 100,000 persons were watching both banks of the canyon, William (Red) Hill, Jr., yesterday rode safely through the turbulent Niagara whirlpool and whirlpool in a specially-constructed barrel, finishing the country seven-day journey at the Queenston docks.

The slightly-built 32-year-old riverman was in the barrel for about two hours. He had been scheduled to start from the Maid of the Mist landing at 2 p.m. Police however had orders to prevent him making the trip and he was met by a police party at the Maid of the Mist landing.

Hill had anticipated the barrel had been removed earlier and entered it near the Whirlpool bridge, a short distance from the river. The barrel was cast loose at 4:45 on his head and waved. The barrel was cast loose at the Queenston dock at 4:30.

City of Edmonton ATTENTION ALL WATER USERS

ALL CITIZENS are requested to REFRAIN from using water, for purposes as noted below, between the hours of 7 o'clock in the morning and 7 o'clock in the evening, on each Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

Purposes, such as: lawn, garden, parking, non-commercial and institutional irrigation, and similar non-essential uses.

This request is intended to apply during the present and some DRY spells only.

There is plenty of water in the river, which is our source of supply, but the main reason for this request is that during the summer months a great deal of water is used for non-essential purposes, resulting in considerable inconvenience to industrial users.

All consumers of water, therefore, are asked to refrain from using water for the off-peak period between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. when industrial use is not so heavy.

The effect of this request will be that the vital needs, fire fighting, household use, institutional, commercial, industrial, hospital and similar needs, will be adequately taken care of at all times.

In recent years, the growth of Edmonton has been rapid and has coincided with an acute shortage of labor and material. The result is the curtailing of capacity mentioned above.

The co-operation of ALL is earnestly requested.

Spokesman Says Meat Rationing Not Too Severe

OTTAWA, July 8.—(CP)—Donald Gordon, prices board chairman, said in a statement Saturday that the forthcoming Canadian ration of 1.3 pounds of actual meat a person a week was "by no means so severe as to cause any anxiety about maintaining an adequate nutritional standard in Canada."

Under the resumed rationing system, which will go into effect in about two months, the average consumption is not expected to fall below 130 pounds, which would be a reduction of 12 per cent from the present consumption.

In addition to the meat ration, Canadians could eat unrationed fish and poultry.

SAME AS BEFORE

"The individual consumer meat ration as announced Friday will be two pounds a week on a carcass weight basis and to that extent is exactly the same ration as that set formerly," said Mr. Gordon.

(During the 1943-44 meat rationing period the weekly ration could range from one pound to 2 1/2 pounds, depending on the type of meat. Carcass weight means meat with the bone included.)

Mr. Gordon said the difference in the proposed new ration as compared with that of 1943-44 was that practically all meat now will be included, while, generally speaking, the last ration covered fresh meat and a few processed meats only.

The old ration did not cover meats such as liver, heart, kidney and the like which now are included.

"Some people are making the mistake of multiplying 1.3 pounds by 52 weeks and jump to the conclusion that we are making an extraordinary reduction from an average yearly per capita consumption of roughly 147 pounds last year to about 68 pounds in the coming year," Mr. Gordon said.

CALCULATION WRONG

"Such a calculation is completely incorrect. In order to arrive at the per capita consumption there must be included meats consumed in hotels, restaurants and other eating places as well as meat which is off-ration, such as soup bones on which less than 50 per cent meat is included."

Glass has been developed which is so tough and resistant to heat and breakage that it can be used for piping.

British Ships Hit Five Times By Jap Bombs

By AL DOPKIN

QUAM, July 8.—(AP)—Three carriers of the British task force attacking the Sakhaline Islands between Okinawa and Formosa were struck by five Kamikaze planes but suffered only minor injuries and continued operations.

United States Pacific fleet advanced headquarters announced yesterday.

Two of the carriers were announced as HMS Indefatigable and Victorious but the identity of the British carriers illustrated and indomitable also were operating in the Pacific.

The Japanese paid a heavy price for the damage inflicted, fleet headquarters said. They lost 140 aircraft during the two months beginning March 26 during which the British task force lashed the Sakhaline Islands.

Only one British ship was rendered inoperative during the campaign—the destroyer Ulster.

TAKES TWO HITS

The indefatigable was hit twice on the same day; another carrier was hit twice on successive days and the Victorious was hit once.

Damage control and fire-fighting parties on all three carriers were able to clear the flight decks so aircraft within a short time after the explosions were taking off and landing, and none was forced to withdraw from action.

President Says Radio Broadcasts Must Remain Free

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—Radio, "by its very nature," must be maintained as free as the press, President Truman said in a letter made public yesterday by Broadcast Magazine.

The letter to Sol Tishoff, editor and publisher of the trade journal, was included in a copyrighted article marking the 25th anniversary of radio's operation on a regular schedule.

"Our lawmakers demonstrated admirable foresight," the President observed, "by decreeing that America's military communications be maintained as free, competitive system, unfettered by artificial barriers and regulated only as to the laws of nature and the limitation of facilities."

CALGARY, July 8.—(CP)—Twenty-five families were driven from their homes and one lost all its possessions when a fire started in the basement of an apartment house here Sunday afternoon. The flames were quickly doused by firemen. Police are seeking a boy, said to be a resident of the block, who was seen running from the basement shortly after the fire started.

Convicted 31 Spies Before End of War

PARIS, July 8.—(AP)—United States military commissions convicted 31 spies and war criminals before V-E day and sentenced them to death. Brig-Gen. Edward O. Minimum publicity "was given precautions before Germany surrendered because of a possibility of reprisals against Allied war prisoners. Gen. Reitz added in a broadcast.

McCoy Health Service

The apple is often mentioned in popular saying as "An apple a day keeps the doctor away." It is the apple of his eye, and so on. It is only natural that the apple should make a place for itself in familiar proverb as it is widely used and heartily appreciated. North America is the greatest apple country in the world and probably the healthiest, more than a hundred million barrels of apples will be gathered.

Many people find that the regular habit of eating an apple or two before going to bed at night is all that is needed to prevent constipation and for this reason the apple has earned the reputation of being a mild regulator.

The apple is classed with the sub-acid fruits, contains about 10 to 15 per cent sugar, and is especially rich in the food minerals needed to build good health.

In today's article I am going to discuss some of the different varieties. Some kinds are best for baking, some best for eating, some best for appearance and some are good for both eating and cooking. By knowing which ones to buy for the purpose intended, you will obtain the most satisfactory results.

The Baldwin is possibly the most popular apple of them all, especially with those who grow apples for their own use. This apple is good for both eating and cooking and if you are looking for an apple which may be used for both purposes, you will be well satisfied with the Baldwin. It has a bright red peel, crisp juicy of a yellow tint, and a comparatively low acid content.

The Winesap is a well-known variety, having been used for a long time. It is rich in an eating apple, its flesh is firm, and a deep red in color, with a glossy shine to the skin, its flesh is hard and yellow. The Roman Beauty is a juicy eating apple, which is one of the newer ones, and is well liked but does not cook well. It is large in size, with a tempting odor and a sweet taste.

Some other good varieties are the White Pearmain, Stayman, Winesap, Jonathan, Golden Grimes, Spitzenburg, and Yellow Bellflower. If I have limited your favorite from this short list, do not hold it against me, for there are literally hundreds of excellent varieties and I do not have space to list them all.

In preparing applesauce, cook the apples very slowly for a long time to bring out all the sweetness of the natural sugar.

All questions regarding health and diet will be answered. Large stamped, self-addressed envelope must be enclosed. Write on one side of paper only. Letters must not exceed 150 words. Address McCoy Health Service, McCos Building, 131 West 6th Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

CCF Members Oppose Raise Freight Rates

REGINA, July 8.—(CP)—Opposition to any increase in railway freight rates in Canada was expressed by new-elected CCF members of parliament at a national caucus here during the week-end.

The caucus recommended the lowering of rates where discrimination exists and formation of a national transportation policy which will co-ordinate railway, steamship, bus and trucking services.

Mr. Colwell, national leader of the CCF, was re-elected caucus chairman and parliamentary leader in the next house of commons.

OPPOSE INCREASES

In a statement issued following the caucus, members said "We are definitely opposed to any increase in freight rates at this time. Indeed we believe that now is the time for the Canadian government to lower freight rates wherever discrimination exists."

Stanley Knowles, member for Winnipeg North Centre, said the caucus laid plans for pressing these points at the forthcoming session of parliament.

Hope that the United Nations Charter signed at San Francisco would be given speedy and unanimous ratification wherever discrimination was expressed by the caucus.

Amnesty Granted To Allow Germans Turn In Firearms

21ST ARMY GROUP HEADQUARTERS, Germany, July 8.—(AP)—In their first concession to the defeated Germans, British authorities Saturday gave German civilians a week of amnesty in which to turn in concealed weapons and explosives without fear of punishment.

The move by military government authorities in the British zone was believed prompted by frequent reports that Germans were taking "potshots" at British soldiers at night and by the increase in the number of persons arrested for concealing firearms.

Unlawful possession or control of any kind of firearm, or of ammunition or explosives is an offense punishable by death.

Germans Murdered Subway Drivers

BERLIN, July 8.—(AP)—One of the last acts of the Nazi regime in Berlin was to murder in cold blood some 10,000 civilians.

They had taken shelter in the subway. Living there in a veritable hell, they became targets of the demand for the cessation of useless resistance. In a rage, the SS commander decided on the supreme penalty for them and SS troops flooded the subway.

Even today the subway system from the Anhalter to the Stettin stations and from the Potsdamer Platz to Kaserthal stations is flooded, and corpses are still seen, but they were in the minority.

As the Russian army approached Berlin, thousands of Berlin women with their children and most valuable belongings took refuge in the subway tunnels.

Of course, there were some business men and clerks who held little against the Nazis, except for the group who did the damage, but they were in the minority and many persons whose premises escaped damage. At any rate, owners of damaged stores know they will be reimbursed by the Canadian government.

Quiet After Riot

By ALLAN NICKLESS, ALDERSHOT, Eng. July 8.—(CP)—After a week of rioting by window-smashing Canadian repatriation troops last Wednesday and Thursday nights, has passed what police termed one of the quietest week-ends of the war.

All the 4,000 transient army personnel had been moved from the built-up area of this garrison town either in embarkation points or southern England camps but extra civil police and Canadian provost corps members still patrolled in forces.

Canadian soldiers in the area have a black name generally with shopkeepers but the average householder amongst Canadians as a group and blames a few trouble-makers for the outbreaks.

That the notorious gathered in a tour through the battered shopping district, where the troops staged the outbreaks mainly in protest against repatriation delay, and in talks with shopkeepers, clerks and Saturday shoppers.

It was not a happy assignment for a reporter wearing "Canada" flashes on his tunic because some clerks were absent in showing dislike for Canadians.

Of course, there were some business men and clerks who held little against the Nazis, except for the group who did the damage, but they were in the minority and many persons whose premises escaped damage. Mark Completion Of Safety Period

DRUMHELLER—Dominion Day celebration Monday marked completion of first six months of Drumhellier Coal Operators' Association's accident prevention and safety program.

Sirens of the operators made to reduce accidents resulted in reducing the number of accidents taking place in Drumhellier's mines between December 1, 1944, and May 31, 1945, by 26 per cent in comparison with last year's figures. In 1944-45 during the same period there were 1,053. In the following year, 925. As a result of the accident prevention and safety program, the total was reduced this year to 684.

Last fall Eugene McCallife of Omaha, Nebraska, president of the Union Pacific Coal Company, visited mining centres in Alberta, promoting accident prevention and safety in the mines. Largely inspired by Mr. McCallife's experience, the Drumhellier Coal Operators' Association initiated an accident prevention and safety program to be administered through its committee consisting of: H. H. McVeigh, general manager of Murray Collieries, chairman; H. W. Clark, superintendent of Royal Coal Company; T. Smith, superintendent of Monarch Coal Mining Company; J. A. Little, and V. A. Cooney, secretary-manager of Drumhellier Coal Operators' Association.

Steady working mine workers have not had to accidents for which they lost more than the day of the accident from December 1, 1944, to May 31, 1945. Figures eligible to participate in a draw for three grand prizes totalling $1,000 in cash.

Monthly prizes were arranged to complete the program. Sweepstakes and cash awards were set up for pit bosses, surface foremen and mine managers.

The Dominion Day celebration in Drumhellier centred around the theme of accident prevention and safety and its main event was the grand prize draw and presentation of prizes.

The coal mining industry and other industries throughout Canada has been watching the program carefully. It is expected because of the program's success thus far that other fields and other industries will establish similar programs for themselves. The Drumhellier coal operators program was the first of its kind in Canadian coal mining history, and it is hoped that as the program progresses that the presently established record will be maintained and a further reduction in accidents will result.
